2. Author's Warranties

The author warrants that the article is original, written by the stated author/s, has not been published before and it will not be submitted anywhere else for publication prior to acceptance/rejection by the Publisher, contains no unlawful statements, does not infringe the rights of others, is subject to copyright that is vested exclusively in the author and free of any third party rights, and that any necessary written permissions to quote from other sources have been obtained by the author/s.

3. User Rights

Under this licence, readers are free to copy and redistribute the article in any medium or format, provided appropriate credit is given, a link to the licence is provided, and any changes are indicated; the article may not be used for commercial purposes, and modified or adapted versions of the article may not be distributed.

The Publisher will insert the following note at the end of the published text: © 2026 by the authors; licensee FDRP, India. This article is an open-access article distributed under the terms and conditions of the Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivatives 4.0 International License (CC BY-NC-ND 4.0) (<https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-nd/4.0/>).

4. Rights of Authors

Authors retain the following rights:

- copyright and all other proprietary rights relating to the article, including patent rights,
- the right to use the substance of the article in future own works, including lectures and books,
- the right to reproduce this article for own purposes, provided the copies are not offered for sale.

The published version of the article may be shared by the author, and by any other person, immediately upon publication in accordance with the licence referred to in Clause 3. In addition, an author may self-archive the author-created version of his/her article (that is, the accepted manuscript prior to the Publisher's typesetting and formatting) on his/her own website and/or in his/her institutional repository. He/she may also deposit that version in his/her funders or the funder's designated repository at the funder's request or as a result of a legal obligation. Where the author-created version is made publicly available, acknowledgement must be given to the original source of publication and a link inserted to the published article on <https://www.fdrpjournals.org/indjcpr>. The link must be accompanied by the following text: "The original publication is available also at <https://www.fdrpjournals.org/indjcpr> ." He/she may also use the Publisher's PDF version, which is posted on <https://fdrpjournals.org/>, for the purpose of self-archiving or deposit.

Any use of the article going beyond what is permitted by the licence referred to in Clause 3 and by this Clause 4 requires permission from the copyright holder.

5. Co-Authorship

If the article was prepared jointly with other authors, the signatory of this form warrants that he/she has been authorized by all co-authors to sign this agreement on their behalf, and agrees to inform his/her co-authors of the terms of this agreement.

6. Publication Fee

Please refer to the Instructions for Authors of INDJCPR for whether the journal charges a publication fee and, if yes, how much the journal charges in publication.

7. Termination

This agreement can be terminated by the author or the Publisher upon two months' notice where the other party has materially breached this agreement and failed to remedy such breach within a month of being given the terminating party's notice requesting such breach to be remedied. No breach or violation of this agreement will cause this agreement or any licence granted in it to terminate automatically or affect the definition of the Publisher. After the lapse of forty (40) years from the date of this agreement, this agreement can be terminated without cause by the author or the Publisher upon two years' notice. The author and the Publisher may agree to terminate this agreement at any time. Termination of this agreement does not withdraw or revoke the licence referred to in Clause 3 in respect of copies of the article already published, which licence is irrevocable.

8. Royalties

This agreement entitles the author to no royalties or other fees. To such extent as legally permissible, the author waives his or her right to collect royalties relative to the article in respect of any use of the article by the Publisher or its sublicensee.

9. Miscellaneous

The Publisher will publish the article (or have it published) in the Journal, if the article's editorial process is successfully completed and the Publisher or its sublicensee has become obligated to have the article published. The Publisher may conform the article to a style of punctuation, spelling, capitalization and usage that it deems appropriate. The author acknowledges that the article may be published so that it will be publicly accessible and such access will be free of charge for the readers. The Publisher will be allowed to sublicense the rights that are licensed to it under this agreement. This agreement will be governed by the laws of India.

10. Scope of the Commercial Licence

Notwithstanding the licence referred to in Clause 3, which governs the rights of readers and other third parties, the non-exclusive right and licence granted under this agreement to the Publisher for commercial use is as follows:

- a. to prepare, reproduce, manufacture, publish, distribute, exhibit, advertise, promote, license and sub-license printed and electronic copies of the article, through the Internet and other means of data transmission now known or later to be developed; the foregoing will include abstracts, bibliographic information, illustrations, pictures, indexes and subject headings and other proprietary materials contained in the article,
- b. to exercise, license, and sub-license others to exercise subsidiary and other rights in the article, including the right to photocopy, scan or reproduce copies thereof, to reproduce excerpts from the article in other works, and to reproduce copies of the article as part of compilations with other works, including collections of materials made for use in classes for instructional purposes, customized works, electronic databases, document delivery, and other information services, and publish, distribute, exhibit and license the same.

Because the licence granted to the Publisher under this agreement is non-exclusive, the author remains free to exercise, and to license to third parties, the same rights, subject only to the terms of this agreement.

The Publisher will be entitled to enforce in respect of third parties, to such extent as permitted by law, the rights licensed to it under this agreement.
